Guided walking tour of the land to learn of its special quality.

After you have satiated your physical desires with the fine food, finished bidding at the silent auction, and danced your body silly, come sit by the fire with Tsaurirrikame Eliot Cowan and feed your spirit.

Come to the land where the story is told of an Onondaga peacemaker, who long ago walked many days to find a healing place to hold a council fire between two nations on the verge of war. When he came into this valley, he found a perfect circle in the river. This was the sign. Come join us at this place that we know as the Blue Deer Center.
